

JUNE 18 – JUNE 30, 2019

Bill Franks started his painting career as a boy, rowing A.Y. Jackson around Go-Home Bay area of Georgian Bay. He was influenced by Jackson and started his oil painting career 'en plein air'. Jackson taught him how to make a sketch box and introduced him to the basics of colour. Franks painting experience has taken him from one coast of Canada to the other plus the high Arctic. His paintings hang in private collections across Canada and internationally.

He strives to present the rhythm, pattern, design and colour of the changing landscape of Canada.

Come on out to the Opening reception and have a chat with Bill, watch him paint, learn and laugh a little.
